

Another student earned his "Rock" today. This was our train this morning(1/17) as we pulled up to it to get on board at Huron, SD. I give every Student Engineer a "Rock", a piece of ballast as a good luck charm. An old Engineer did it for me when I was promoted 20 years ago, so I carried on the tradition. Photo by Stephen Guthrie

